

Le Chéile Scholarship and Bryan Keane Bursary Awards Terms and Conditions

- Applications are open to members of Le Chéile Credit Union.
- There will be 7 awards in total, divided into 2 categories:
- Category 1 is open to Level 7 and Level 8 students.
Ten applicants will be selected by open draw and invited for short, informal interview. Five bursaries of €2500 each, will be awarded following the interview process to five successful candidates. Any additional recognition prizes to those candidates interviewed will be awarded at the discretion of the Board.
The interview panel will consist of representatives from our Oldcastle office, our Athboy office and independent parties.
- Category 2 is open to PLC, Level 6 and students starting Apprenticeships.
These scholarships will be awarded by open draw.
Scholarships of €500 each, will be awarded to 2 students.
- All students must be entering college for the first time and going into first year of a third level course. For Mature Students, this must be your first time entering third level education.
- Proof of acceptance of a third level course must be provided. This third level course for Category 1 must be a full time course, minimum of three years.
- Payments of Bursaries and Scholarships is dependent on the students providing satisfactory evidence of registration for their course.
- Payments will be made directly into the students' Le Cheile Credit Union accounts in two equal instalments in November and February.
